

BLACK FLY BREWFEST MAY 18, 2019

BREWER APPLICATION

The Greater Houlton Chamber of Commerce, in an effort to promote Maine craft breweries and initiate networking between Maine brewers and existing and potential agricultural entities and beer and wine sellers in the State of Maine is once again sponsoring the Black Fly Brewfest in Houlton, Maine on May 18. The venue will be the Millar Civic Center which is capable of comfortably holding 1000. This will be an event to promote Maine craft beer, the Maine Brewers Guild, and Aroostook County. The venue will not be oversold which will allow for ample space for the brewers to discuss and explain their craft to people in attendance.

We would like to encourage brewers and wine makers to join us the Friday evening before the event for appetizers and beer at an as yet undecided location. Attending will be not only brewers, but interested farmers, local beer and wine purveyors and others who may have an interest in your product.

VENDOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Breweries and wineries will offer at least three different beers or wines for sampling
- Brewers and wine makers are encouraged, but not required, to offer at least one exclusive beer for VIP session
- Breweries and wineries should provide own banner or signage

THE FEST PROVIDES:

- One motel room for one night at The Shiretown Motel
- Appetizer and beer/wine Reception on Friday night
- Reimbursement for beer or wine poured
- 10'X10' spaces with tables and chairs will be provided. (larger spaces available upon request)
- Tasting glasses
- Overnight refrigerated storage area
- Passes for brewery reps and required staff
- Ice as needed
- Licensing will be facilitated by the Festival organizer
- Recruitment of additional help for the brewer if needed
- Aggressive promotion of the event in Maine and New Brunswick, Canada
